Paired Brewing Project - Adjunct Draft Night

Project Details:

YOU DO NOT HAVE TO BE A BREWER FOR THIS ONE

- Individuals (Red Earth Members Only) will sign up to participate. Sign-up Deadline May 23rd
- Participants will be divided into two Groups.
- On Draft Night, Group A will draft an adjunct from the list.
- On Draft Night, Group B will draft an adjunct from the list. They will be paired with the participant from Group A who drafted the same adjunct. This is how teams will be determined.
- Teams will:
 - Select the base style to brew (recorded on draft night)
 - design their own recipe - to include the drafted adjunct. NO OTHER ADJUNCTS MAY BE USED.
- Teams will pick one location to brew the assigned style.
- The batch can be one, or split into 2+ batches to be fermented with different yeast strains. Teams decide this.
- Groups will gather on deadline day for tasting and discussion. (Location TBD)
- Participants will receive 2 BOTY points

Judging Prep Course

A lot of folks have said they would judge but aren't sure how or haven't done it. We are having a judging prep session on Saturday, May 13 @ 2pm at Nicholas's house! We'll judge a beer using the same software we'll use for the Spring Brew Off. There will be plenty of discussion during the process.

You will need a laptop, ipad, or other device to judge with.

You can register as a judge at <https://competitions.redearthbrewers.com/sbotest/>

Select Register and Judge, create your account and select the details to judge. I'll reach out with details as we get closer.
